

<http://autumn2017seminar.eucen.eu/>

Profile

Beate Hörr M.A. Master's degree in Comparative Literature, Hispanic studies and German language and literature studies in Mainz and Madrid, additional studies in German as a foreign language; PhD as a scholarship holder of the DFG Graduate School; scientific assistant at the institutes for Comparative Literature and Theater Studies at JGU Mainz (1995-1998); Guest lecturer of the DAAD for German as a Foreign Language and Theater Studies at the Universidad de los Andes, Santa Fe de Bogotá (Colombia) in 1997 and 1999; Head of the International Summer Course at the University of Mainz (1997-1998); Head of the Academic Foreign Office of the University of Education Freiburg (1998-2000);

Since 2000 Director of the Center for Continuing Education at the Gutenberg University of Mainz, Germany

- Since 09/2017 Board of Administration Member of the German Institute for Adult Education - Leibniz Centre for Lifelong Learning (DIE) as a representative of science (DGWF);
- Since 05/2017 Chairman of the establishing Council of the Continuing Education Academy University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna;
- Since 2016 Deputy Member of the Regional Council of Continuing Education Rhineland-Palatinate;
- Since 12/2016 Vice Chairman of the Regional Association for Universities and Science Rhineland-Palatinate (Council Member since 2011);
- Since 2014 Advisory Council Member of the Project „Continuum – Continuing Education at TU Darmstadt“;
- From 2010 till 2015: Member of the Steering Committee of EUCEN – European Universities Continuing Education Network;
- From 2011 till 03/2017: Board member of the Federal Association for Learning in Later Life and member of the Senate of the Johannes Gutenberg-University of Mainz;
- From 2012 till 2016: President of the German National Network for Lifelong Learning (www.dgwf.net).

Scientific focus and research interests: Adult Education / Scientific Further Education / Lifelong Learning; Education and University Research; Demographic Development / Geragogy; Work-related Scientific Further Education for older people.