

<http://autumn2017seminar.eucen.eu/>

Profile

Frank Edwards, MA Ed, MBA, FCMJ
Director Workforce Development, Pearson Education

Frank Edwards is a highly experienced educational expert and has a vast amount of experience related to the design and implementation of education and training solutions for different client groups. He has worked at ministerial level in a number of countries related to education and training reform. Before joining Pearson Frank was a successful principal and Chief Executive of a start-up further and Higher Education Institution, which through his leadership achieved the prestigious award of European International Centre of Excellence. Since joining Pearson, he has been responsible for the design and implementation of numerous training projects clients in the Middle East. Frank has had executive oversight of a number of large-scale national reform projects and is an international speaker for Pearson regarding such developments. He also has extensive experience in the design and implementation of complex government reform projects aimed at ensuring education and training are relevant to economic development and the world of work. Frank places employability, career readiness and the acquisition of 21st Century Skills as an essential requirement for success in the changing workplace.

